25X1 4. [] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say he would like information on four U.S. nationals reportedly collaborating with the Vietcong in Indochina--three going by the nicknames "Salt," "Pepper," and "Porkchop," and the fourth described as a black lieutenant married to a Vietcong woman. I said we would check this and be ready to give Sourwine an answer when he returns from leave in about nine days.

25X1 5. [] Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, ~~House Armed Services Committee~~, called about a query he received from the press on the recent introduction of Soviet missiles into the Middle East. After checking with [] I said the only thing we had was a rumor, believed originating with the []
